

LANGFORD LOSES, TO HARRY WILLS

"Tar Baby" Loses World's Negro Title Belt in 15-round Battle.

WILLS CLEARLY SUPERIOR
Wins Eight Rounds to Sam's One—Langford Evades Knockout.

By LARRY DAILEY
Wonderful, venerable Sam Langford failed to successfully defend his newly won world's negro heavyweight title when he was defeated in a 15-round bout by Harry Wills before the Tulsa Athletic club last night. Langford fought with all the cunning and craft of his long career but it was unavoidable against the cleverness and accuracy of the powers of Wills. Langford was first to congratulate his conqueror at the conclusion of the fight.

It was youth vs. age, and as usual youth won. Wills, just at his prime, combined all necessary requisites for a champion size, hitting power, cleverness and stamina. Wills also had the longer reach and a slight weight advantage.

Wills Takes Aggressive

With took the aggressive from the start winning that round and maintaining his advantage throughout. He had Langford in a bad way in the eighth round, but Sam covered up and managed to evade a knockout. Thereafter, there was no likelihood possibility of a knockout. Wills failing to show a hard punch, while Langford's cleverness of holding prevented the New Orleans negro from getting out of short range.

Wills ripped lefts with an occasional cross into Langford's face in the early rounds. Sam successfully blocked Wills' attack on his face after the fifth round. Wills then played on Langford's body, with the exception of an occasional change of tactics when he tried for Sam's face.

After Wills had drawn the first blood in the third round Langford staged a comeback and fought on even terms until the eighth. From then on it was clearly Wills' fight.

Wills Clearly Superior

Wills is given eight rounds, the first, second, third, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, and fourteenth. Langford had no margin in only one, the fourth, the fourth, the sixth, the seventh, and twelfth, were even.

Edward W. Cochrane, sports editor of the Kansas City Journal, was referee. Cochrane, as usual, made it a clean, fast fight.

Young Starlight of Tulsa had a new partner, Young Bonds of Sapulpa. Bonds quit in the third.

Abe Attell, for 12 years world's featherweight champion, was introduced.

SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH SOONER ELEVEN

Outplayed Nebraska and Missouri But Were Held to Ties in Each Engagement.

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 5.—"What is the matter with the team?" is a question heard frequently on the campus of the University of Oklahoma this week as at Nebraska and Missouri supporters are united in the belief that the football eleven outplayed both Nebraska and Missouri by a margin wide enough to have won each game by two touch-downs, yet both resulted in tie scores.

Opinion cannot unite on the exact fault, however, because fumbling and holding were the factors preventing victory at Omaha and poor fielding generalship is generally given as the contributing factor to the failure to win against the Tigers here.

Team Most Improved

The team must win, though, it is now certain. If it gets back into the column when it meets the University of Kansas this week at Lawrence, Kansas surprised Oklahoma when it triumphed over Kansas Aggies last week and next Saturday's contest immediately jumped from a comparatively easy to one of the hardest on the schedule.

In scrummage and more signal drill to prevent misplays and increase the speed of the eleven in the program, the Sooner team, H. H. Owen's best halfback, has returned after a month's illness and if he gets in shape, he may add strength to the Sooner lineup at Lawrence.

May Change Pilot

If Hill is unable to play this week, the lineup probably will be the same as against Missouri with the possible exception of quarterback Davis, who started against the Tigers. Paul Johnson has not played up to his usual form at end in the last two games and he may give way to Lester this week.

DRUG ADDICT TOOK DOPE THROUGH FOOT INCISION

Special to The World.
MUSKOGEE, Nov. 5.—W. T. Todd, alleged to have sold drugs illegally to Tulsa for several months, was placed in the federal jail here by Deputy United States Marshal John Morris.

When Todd was arrested at Tulsa a hypodermic needle was discovered concealed between the soles of his shoes. It is alleged that Todd was a drug addict himself, taking the dope through an incision in his foot.
